2004 North Central Region Volunteer Forum

Hosted by:
Purdue University Extension
4-H Youth Development & Agricultural Education Department

An invitation to invest in 500 4-H VOLUNTEERS who are “igniting their passion” for today's youth and tomorrow's leaders.
The Forum
More than 500 4-H volunteers and staff from 12 Midwestern states and 3 Canadian provinces are expected to attend the 2004 North Central Region Volunteer Forum in Indianapolis.

The volunteer participants represent 4-H clubs, special interest groups for youth, and out-of-school programming.

The volunteer forum brings new energy to creating richer opportunities for learning in our communities so youth can receive better, more supportive learning environments.

The forum is packed with energizing speakers, hands-on workshops, exciting tours, and evening entertainment. Volunteers share and learn from each other during the many networking opportunities.

Goals of the forum include:

- Provide new and creative ideas and concepts to share with others
- Build knowledge base to help youth learn life skills and self-confidence
- Expand horizons beyond the local level to better understand 4-H at the state, regional and national levels
- Explore partnership opportunities between 4-H and other youth organizations

Your Investment Opportunities
As the host state for the 2004 Forum, Indiana is responsible for raising over $20,000 in private support to subsidize the cost of the conference for volunteer participants.

Forum sponsors are needed for keynote speakers, the Hoosier Festival and Dinner at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, the closing banquet, the equestrian educational program focus, tours, workshops, promotional items, and other expenses.

The host state traditionally raises money to provide registration scholarships for in-state volunteers to attend the forum at a reduced cost. Scholarship Sponsors may designate their gift to support volunteers from specific counties.

The forum also features a Silent Auction of donated merchandise from companies and organizations. Donated items typically have a retail value that ranges from $20-$250. Silent Auction proceeds are also used towards subsidizing the forum costs.

Donations of beverages, snack foods, and supplies are needed for the hospitality suite, where volunteers gather to share ideas and recharge their batteries.

Finally, a registration gift bag is traditionally prepared at the Forum for each of the 500 participants. This year's bag will include a small portfolio, pen, and pencil.

All Forum & Scholarship sponsors and their company or organizational logo and website will be printed in the program materials.

Posters listing Conference Sponsors will be displayed at registration and at the respective forum event (keynote speaker, entertainment, closing banquet, hospitality suite).

All Silent Auction and Gift Bag Donors will be listed in the program materials.
