New Business
Murdock Afterschool Program – Lydia Smith
- Last time the kids had a thanksgiving party, made turkeys out of egg cartons and played a game. There will be one more visit to Murdock this semester on the Tuesday of dead week.
- Find or email Lydia (smit1416@purdue.edu) if you are interested in getting involved! We leave campus at 3:30pm on Tuesdays to get to Murdock by 4:00pm.
- Next semester, we may change the day of the week that we visit Murdock to fit everyone’s new schedules. We will determine who is interested in participating and their schedules next semester.

Intramural and Social Events – Alyssa Hudson
- There is a doodle poll to measure interest in intramurals for second semester. So far there is a tie between sand volleyball and wallyball. Vote at:

National Collegiate 4-H Invitational – Cullen Johnson Penn State, March 6th-8th, 2014
- Updates coming soon!

Operation Military Child – Ryan Wynkoop via Austin Guoli
- There is an upcoming opportunity to help out military children. If you are interested, talk to Austin or email Ryan (rwynkoop@purdue.edu).
  - Sunday, December 8th from 10am to 12pm at 40/8 located at 1421 N. Creasy Lane, Lafayette, IN 47905 and at the same time in Shelbyville. Four volunteers are needed to support the 638th HSC Family Readiness Group holiday gathering at each location. A craft will be provided to create with the kids and volunteers will help distribute Hero Packs as the youth visit with Santa Claus. More volunteers are needed in Shelbyville so please contact Ryan if you are interested!

Officer Trainings – Holly Kyler

- Officer trainings were opened to weekends this year in addition to weekdays. So far, the following counties have reserved dates:
  - Lawrence—Saturday, February 1st (Team building event with their counselors instead of an officer training)
  - Jasper—Tuesday, February 18th, 6pm (leave at 3:30pm)
  - LaPorte—Thursday, February 20th, 5pm Central/6pm Eastern
  - Starke—Tuesday, February 25th, time TBA
  - Miami—Saturday, March 1st
  - Benton—Monday, March 17th, 6pm

Clothing Orders – Grace Mears

- It is time to order clothing! To order, let Grace know the item you want indicating your size. If you are unable to attend the meetings, email Grace at gmears@purdue.edu.
- There are two different polo shirts, a quarter zip fleece, a full zip fleece, a t-shirt, and a windbreaker. Grace has examples of everything except the windbreaker. T-shirts will be $8 each since demand is low this year.
  - If you attend officer trainings, you will need to order a polo shirt.
- You may place a clothing order until Tuesday, November 26th. Orders should be paid for up front, but if you can’t, please let Grace know and exceptions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Social Media – Missy Welsh

- Missy Tweeted the HotBox Skip-A-Meal event and posted it on Facebook.
