December 2-3, 2005
Location TBA

SPEAK OUT FOR MILITARY KIDS (SOMK)
A component of…

OPERATION: MILITARY KIDS

It is the policy of the Purdue University Cooperative Extension Service, David C. Petritz, Director, that all persons shall have equal opportunity and access to the programs and facilities without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, or disability. Purdue University is an Affirmative Action employer. This material may be available in alternative formats.

Learn about how you can help!
See more information inside.
How can I become involved?

Do you want to help military kids through the SOMK program? Then join our team by contacting us (check back page) through email, phone or by postal mail with the information below.

We provide you with additional details regarding the SOMK training as they become available.

What else can I do to help?

• Recruit your friends in junior high and high school to participate in the SOMK training program.
• Schedule an SOMK presentation for your organization.
• Encourage your community organizations to schedule an SOMK presentation.

Please return your information to us by October 10, 2005.

Name:

Address:

City, State, Zip:

Email:

Telephone:

County: