Adult Volunteer Application, Screening and Behavioral Expectation Policy

What You Learned:

You have just participated in a presentation discussing the adult volunteer application, screening and behavioral expectations policy. This program is part of the “Optimizing Your Potential as a 4-H Volunteer Project” that consists of a series of programs designed to help Cooperative Extension Service youth volunteers be successful and effective in their work with Indiana’s youth. Please help us in assuring that these materials are fulfilling that goal by sharing with us what you have learned. Please take a few minutes to answer the following questions.

Thank you.

1. Which 4-H volunteers are asked to participate in the application process?

   a) _____ Some
   c) _____ Only club leaders

   b) _____ None
   d) _____ All

2. What must a potential, new 4-H volunteer complete/provide in order to be considered for an appointment as a volunteer?

   _________________________________________________________________

   _________________________________________________________________

3. What must an Extension Educator do before a volunteer may be considered for a position?

   _________________________________________________________________

   _________________________________________________________________
4. List five behaviors that the Adult Behavioral Expectations Form addresses.
   a) b) c) d) e)

5. Individuals who do not follow the guidelines on the Adult Behavioral Expectations Form may be barred from participating in 4-H events or activities.

   TRUE _____   FALSE _____

6. Do you understand why the Adult Behavioral Expectations Form is necessary in the 4-H/Youth Program?

   YES_____   NO_____

7. Additional Information ________________________________