FEEL THE POWER OF MUSIC......?????

WHO: Youth who want to learn more about instrumental performance, techniques, meet new friends, and perform in Loeb Playhouse on Purdue campus. You do not have to belong to 4-H to attend this workshop, just be interested in learning instrumental performance! Participants should be entering high school or currently in high school. Band members may continue participation through their 12th grade.

WHAT: 2013 Indiana State 4-H Band Workshop - a three day workshop which concludes with a public performance in Loeb Playhouse at 4-H Youth Roundup, June 24th at 6:30 PM

WHEN: June 22-24, 2013

WHERE: Purdue University, West Lafayette

The workshop is held on Purdue’s campus and participants stay in residence halls and practice in Purdue Band facilities.

Sponsored By: Purdue University Department of Youth Development and Agricultural Education - a leader in youth development. The State 4-H Office coordinates the 4-H Band workshop and is responsible for the overall organization, planning, and adult chaperoning. Purdue University Bands Retired Associate Professor, Bill Kisinger, is in his 39th year as the conductor of the State 4-H Band. He has retired as an assistant to the famous Purdue University All-American Marching Band as well as the conductor of the American Music Review and Lafayette Orchestra.

Fees: Participants are responsible for the $180 application/registration fee, which covers registration, lodging, performance shirt and 4 meals. The participants will also be responsible for the remainder of performance uniform and approximately 4 meals and any incidental.

Selection Process: Participants are selected by application and must have the recommendation of their instrumental/band instructor. Applications may be copied from the back of this flier and can also be downloaded from the Indiana 4-H website: www.four-h.purdue.edu (click on Search and type in “Band”)
